GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

New York Irish-American Republican Convention.

ALBANY, Sept. 27.—The Irish American republican convention met to-day. John K. Henning was chosen temporary chairman. The various committees were appointed and a recess was taken. This afternoon a permanent organization was effected. The platform of principles endorses in full the platform of the national republican convention promulgated at Chicago in June last, suggests the propriety of the state convention being instructed for Grant, and calls on all Irish American republican voters in the state to support the nominees. The resolutions also favor protection for American industries, denounce assembly dislikes, speeches were made, and the convention adjourned.

The platform contains this passage: The republican party in forcing protection for American industries is entitled to the gratitude and earnest support of every Irish American in the land as no party ever was or can be expected to do. It has given greater reason to dread the evils which would follow the adoption of the free trade doctrine of those who have adopted and now advocate the cause of England and their families. In this position the Irish American citizens will not be alone, as the party is earnestly implored to consider carefully this vital question. Remembering that at the last presidential election the democratic party, by recklessly and fraudulently written documents and expending large sums of British gold in their desperate efforts to secure the election of a democratic president, pledged to enforce tariff for revenue only and declared that if accomplished will enable England to regain her markets with products of pauper labor to the great injury of American workmen to engage in competition with Hindoo, Hindoo, and poorly paid laborers of Europe.

The answer of Riza Pasha to Admiral Seymour's ultimatum was as follows: The porte's answer until orders were to be sent to the integrity of the Ottoman territory and that no would cede any area Montenegrin frontiers. Admiral Seymour informed Prince Nikola of Montenegro that he had a telegram from the British ambassador at Constantinople saying that the affair was now in the hands of the British admiral and prince of Montenegro. At a second conference Prince Nikola assured Admiral Seymour that his troops were ready to march to Dulcigno immediately. It has been arranged that no steps will be fired from the fleet near the town of Dulcigno but fire will be opened on Masura and other fortified positions. The Montenegrins have six guns, six naia have been arranged between Admiral Seymour and the Montenegrin divisional commander. Riza Pasha has a well equipped battery of horse artillery. The Montenegrins are 7,000 strong while the Albanians have 6000 men and three field pieces. There are ten Turkish battalions under Riza Pasha near Dulcigno. OREGON LEGISLATURE.

ELEVENTH BIENNIAL SESSION.

[illegible]

Senate

[illegible]

That H B 85 to provide for the time of holding the terms of the supreme, circuit and county courts.

Ashley moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Lord desired to have the bill printed so as to let the circuit court of Polk and his constituents know what it contains.

McConnell did not think the bill would suit his constituents and he would like to have the bill printed so that he might be informed. Neither was its provisions and contracts. He objected to the motion on the ground that the bill provides for the holding of terms of the circuit courts in Yamhill county. As the law now stands the circuit court in Yamhill county is the only court in the county. The object of the bill proposed is the instruction of the farmers, as the small number of them who are on the jury list are generally incompetent to act as jurors. Some of the farmers in this county have asked him to help the bill, as they thought it would be to their interest and don't think that the interest of those who live in the larger towns would be affected by the bill. The harvest holds until the spring and should be so. It is important to the farmers who have cases on the docket, officers and well versed court rooms. Mr. President on these grounds I shall vote against the motion.

Hillyer would like to know if it affected or changed the time of holding court in this county.

Ashley explained what it contained, and argued strongly in its favor.

Smith—It makes a very material difference with the farmers, and they would know just when it would be and it affects them. Therefore I desire that it be printed. He had answered the same man from Linn in a like [illegible] that many of the farmers in this county would take a great interest in the farmers and their affairs. He did not see any farmers here, and presumed that not one was present. He would not work and bundle up that part of the bill. He would be totally in favor of the adoption of the bill with the change of time in the terms. A farmer who worked himself and was possibly that the courts called and refused days could stand the inference. Every farmer would call a change of the time as it comfortably furnished rooms of the court house as easily as the farmer who was exposed to the heat or worse, the cold, rain, out in the field performing his arduous work.

Lord moved to withdraw his motion granted.

Ashley moved that H B 85 be amended by striking out the words introduce a bill and to read "that section 1 of chapter 21 of the laws of Oregon relating to the sale of lands in the Eastern district."

Holmes—I wish to modify and limit the liabilities of bail or sureties on bonds or undertakings.

Ashley moved that H B 85 be indefinitely postponed.

Smith moved to strike out the title and to read the title of the bill as prevails.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Cox introduced the amendments of the senate to introduce H B 85 to create and organize the county of Ochoco and to provide for the appointment of county officers and their compensation passed to second reading.

Knight—S B 85 to provide for the time of holding the terms of the supreme, circuit and county courts.

Ashley moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Lord desired to have it printed so as to let the circuit court of Polk and his constituents know what it contains.

More particularly as the British squadron will continue cruising, saying that the fair was now in the hands of the British admiral and prince of Montenegro. At a second council of war Admiral Seymour announced Admiral Seymour that his troops were ready to march to Dulcigno immediately. It has been arranged that no shot will be fired from the town of Dulcigno, but fire will be opened on Montenegrins from the fortifications. The Montenegrins have six guns. Riza Pasha Firm.

RAGUSA, Sept 27.—The British consul has arrived with Admiral Seymour. Riza Pasha states that he has no order to surrender Dulcigno, and in an event of war against Albanians will be regarded as an act of war against Turkey. A despatch boat has gone to Cattaro to bring the Montenegrin minister of foreign affairs to confer with Admiral Seymour. The Montenegrins are 7000 strong while the Albanians have 6000 men and three field pieces. There are ten Turkish battalions under Riza Pasha near Dulcigno. It is just made known that the fleet will not start until Wednesday.

Will not Surrender Dulcigno.

CONSTANTINOPLE Sept. 27.—Count Von Hatzfeld, the German ambassador, had a four hours' interview with the sultan and vainly tried to persuade him to consent to a peaceful surrender of Dulcigno. The sultan replied in terms similar to those of the porte's last note, refusing to order a surrender unless the naval demonstration was abandoned. Count Von Hatzfeld has notified the diplomatic body to-day of the failure of the situation occasioned by the above interview

SCUTARI, Sept. 26.—The Albanian council recently invited the Albanian chiefs at Dulcigno to come to Scutari that he might represent to them the necessity of the surrender of Dulcigno, but the chiefs left more than ever determined to resist.

Declaration of War.

GRAHOVA Sept. 27.—Yesterday the prince of Montenegro received official information that an advance to Dulcigno would be regarded as a declaration of war. The prince of Montenegro consequently had telegraphed Admiral Seymour that he had not prepared to thwart aid to land troops to attack the Albanians, reinforced as they are by Turkish regulars and artillery. This step of the porte must be regarded as a paramount to a declaration of war against Europe

Intense Spirit of Recklessness.

CONSTANTINOPLE Sept. 27.—A spirit of reckless defiance is becoming more and more intense at the palace. Private advices say the sultan has refused to listen to any objections offered by his ministers to the policy which he has adopted and has instructed no other than any official who shall be heard expressing contrary opinions, will be dismissed and executed. Never before since the time of Mahomed the Terrible, has such an order been issued.

Albanians Entrenched at Mount Mazurei.

The Albanians are encamped on the summit of Mount Mazentei, where they have formed five lines of entrenchments, connected by covered ways. It is reported that a pasha has arrived in the vicinity of Scutari. Only one vessel of each nationality will probably go to Dulcigno. A trust worthy report has just been received that in consequence of the arrival of a French courier, the fleet will not start for Dulcigno for 48 hours

Composition of the Squadron.

RAGUSA, Sept 27.—The squadron which actually will take part in the demonstration will be divided into three sections, of which English and Italian ships second of Austrian and French, and third of Russian and German ships

Montenegro Asks for Time.

BERLIN, Sept 27.—Montenegro has asked for a postponement of action against Dulcigno beyond Wednesday in order that she may complete her armaments.

Will Not Grant Further Time.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.—The ambassadors reply to the porte's circular on Montenegrin question has been delivered. The porte declines to grant more time or abandon the demonstration

Landlord Murdered.

GALWAY, Sept. 26.—Lord Montmorris, a small land owner on bad terms with his tenants, has been found murdered near Ballinrobe. He had received six bullet wounds. A land meeting was held Sunday near the spot where Lord Montmorris was murdered. The speakers disclaimed any connection of the land league with the murder

DUBLIN, Sept. 27.—The murder of Lord Mountmorris has caused the greatest sensation in Dublin. It is expected that the affair will induce the government to take decisive steps to control the utterances of land agitators.

Large Land Meetings.

DUBLIN Sept. 26.—Land meetings were held today at Kilrush and New Ross. Ten thousand persons were at the former meeting. Parnell attended the New Ross meeting at which 20,000 persons were present. Parnell denounced the liberal government for following in the footsteps of its predecessors, and said nothing but abolition of landlordism would lead to the satisfactory settlement of the question

Trying to Make Amicable Arrangements.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Accrington strike committee in connection with the wages committee have resolved to advise the Accrington operatives to keep working a little longer in order to give employers a chance of carrying out their promises of increase in wages. Delegates from north and northeast Lancashire empowered the wages committee to deal with the dispute in measures they thought best

The Canopus Disaster.

The Canopus went ashore in a dense fog. She was going at full speed when she struck, and it being high water she ran high on a rocky beach and remained fast. A boat from shore went to her assistance. It having been ascertained that the ship was not leaking, telegrams were sent to Greenock for tugs. Men from ashore assisted to lighten her, and 250 tons of cargo were thrown overboard. The passengers remained on board. Should the weather continue fine the steamer will probably get afloat.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1880.

THE MATTER OF PENSIONS.

In certain quarters there is an effort to commend the democratic party to consideration of the ex-soldiers of the country by representing that party as specially friendly to pensions, and by charging it to the republicans in congress that more liberal provision for pensions has not been made. The official records are, however, very far from bearing out these statements. On the 2d of April, 1878, Cummings (republican) of Iowa introduced a bill providing that all pensions which had been granted or might in future be granted in consequence of a cause which originated in the United States service during the war of the rebellion, or in consequence of wounds, injuries or disease received or contracted in said service, should commence from the date of the discharge. On this bill 116 republicans in the house voted aye; nays, none. Of the democratic members 48 voted aye and 61 voted no. Thus the bill was carried through the house by the republican vote, which was a majority of 7 over the combined votes of the democrats for and against the bill. In the senate 26 republicans voted aye and none voted no. A majority of the democratic senators dodged the vote, but the republican majority was 4 over the combined vote of the democratic senators voting in the affirmative and negative.

This record furnishes a fair test of the attitude of the two parties in relation to pensions. But there is still another test. The bill of Mr. Butchard (republican) of Illinois, appropriating $40,000,000 for the payment of arrears of pensions, was introduced February 3, 1879. It received the votes of 108 republicans and 32 democrats, and of the democrats all except three were from the states of the late southern confederacy. Against it were 78 democrats and 3 republicans. A two-thirds vote being required under the rules, the bill was lost. Mr. Speaks introduced two weeks later the bill which was finally passed. It appropriated $28,000,000. Only three democrats from the confederacy voted for it in the house, and they were joined by 67 northern democrats and 118 republicans. Against it stood one republican, and the phalanx of 66 democrats, including almost the entire brigadier representation.

In the senate a proviso was moved to exclude ex-confederates from the benefits of the bill. On this 24 voted yea, all republicans, and 28 voted nay, all democrats but two. In the interest of certain ex-confederates it was then proposed to extend the provisions of the bill to all veterans of the Mexican war. Objection was again made that this would place Jefferson Davis and other ex-confederates on the pension rolls, and Senator Blair therefore moved a proviso, as a test, that no pension should be paid to Jefferson Davis. Against this proviso the democrats that were present—voted in a solid body, but the republican senators were in sufficient force to carry it. When the bill went back to the house for final action, after some amendments of detail by the senate, all the negative votes, 61 in number, were democratic, and mostly from the south. It was this state of facts which induced Beltchoover, a democratic member from Pennsylvania, to write that letter to a constituent which has made so much stir lately, saying that "with the present democratic house, pension bills do not have much favor," and that "the rebel general who is at the head of the pension committee of the senate is still more averse to allowing any such bills to pass."

Doubtless there are those who will take opposing views of the importance of this question, and perhaps there may not be full agreement as to the policy of granting the pensions. But as the above is the official record, it is as well to have it truly stated.

THAT SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. William Reid, of the narrow gauge railway, presents his plea for his proposed bill, including a track down Front street, carefully keeping the interests of his company in the background, and endeavoring to make it appear that his solicitude in the matter has sole reference to the benefit to be conferred on the wheat-growers of the interior and on warehousemen in Portland. The cost of handling at Portland is something, of course; but it would not quite so probably be saved to the farmer as it would be added to the rates charged by the railway. Others can see, if Mr. Reid can't, that the special privilege is that his company claims. It consists in the effort to get valuable depot property in Portland without paying for it. Other railway companies, wanting such property, have purchased it. This is the first to take property belonging to the city, and make money out of it for private or corporate use. The case is not parallel with that of the Western Oregon Company, whose road runs through Fourth street. For that company did not go to the legislature for license to take away from the city valuable property belonging to it. It simply asked the city for right of way through a street, contracting to keep that street in good repair as consideration for the easement. It did not propose to blockade any of the cross streets, or to turn side tracks into them, and has not attempted to do so. It laid no claim to any public park or levee, and has not tried to get property of great value for depot and shipping purposes without paying for it. The cases therefore are totally different. It is of great importance, doubtless, that charges to be borne by wheat should be reduced to as low a point as possible. But expense of warehouses and elevators is as legitimate and necessary a part of the expense to be borne by wheat as are railway freights; and the railway company which desires to bring its cars right to deep water—as does ship and car will come together—should have water-front for a depot as some of our railway companies have already done. A course like this would seem to be a great deal more legitimate and honorable than an attempt to seize for private gain valuable property donated to and held by the public for a public use. As a private individual, engaging in a business transaction on his own private account, Mr. Reid, we are confident, would not think of attempting a thing of this kind. He would scorn the imputation of it as a thing affecting his honor. It will therefore strike many as quite remarkable that when he, with others, incorporates, he should look at it so differently. But to the city, if it be deprived of its property, it makes no difference whether the person who seizes it be an individual or a corporation. In either case the loss is the same. The public will have no difficulty in seeing where the special privilege is which the Oregonian company claims.

THE NEW PILOT BILL.

House bill number forty-five, introduced by Dr. Plummer, of Multnomah, is a bill for an act to provide for pilotage and towage on the Columbia and Willamette rivers. It proposes that pilots shall be licensed under the usual restrictions, and that owners of steam tug boats may apply for licenses to tow vessels on the Columbia river bar pilot grounds, and if such boats have proper certificates and equipment, the licenses shall issue. Rates for pilotage and towage are distinctly specified in the bill, viz.: For piloting a vessel from beyond the bar to Astoria, eight dollars per foot draught; from a point any distance within the bar and below Sand island, four dollars per foot, and from a point any distance from above Sand island, two dollars per foot. For piloting a vessel from Astoria to the sea and beyond the pilot ground, eight dollars per foot draught. For towing a vessel by a steam tug, under charge of a licensed pilot, twelve dollars per foot draught. This compensation is intended to include use of hawser and everything necessary to tow vessels in or out. Every pilot to whom license is is required to pay $50 therefor, and for each renewal $25. Licenses under the act are to run for three years. To carry out the provisions of the act three pilot commissioners are to be appointed by the governor, with consent of the senate, at a salary of $200 a year each, and the commissioners may employ a clerk at a compensation of $600 per annum. A concluding section repeals all existing laws relating to pilotage and towage on the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

We have an inquiry from Weston, Umatilla county, as to the authorship of the lines:

Pity the sorrows of a poor old man, etc.

The writer says he has been unable to find them anywhere, and would like to know their origin. The author of the lines was Thomas Moss, a clergyman of Staffordshire, England, 1740–1808. The full quotation is as follows:

Pity the sorrows of a poor old man
Whose trembling limbs have brought him to your door,
Whose days are dwindled to the shortest span:
Oh! give relief and heaven will bless your store.

The stanza is an extract from a poem entitled "The Begger," published in a collection of the author's miscellaneous poems in the year 1769. We believe no other performance in the collection is now remembered; and in fact it may be said that the name of Thomas Moss survives only in the catalogues of the most industrious bibliographers.

The south supports Gen. Hancock, and he will get its "solid" vote, because it believes he will, if elected, be the leader of that distinctive policy of southern reaction which was advocated so vehemently at the famous extra session with which the present congress began its unfruitful existence. But there are northern democrats who say he will not. Now if he should be elected somebody is to be deceived here. Who is it? As a hint towards solution of this conundrum let us ask when the south was ever deceived in a northern democratic president?

After somewhat careful examination of the bill introduced a few days ago to create a board of commissioners to take charge of the penitentiary of the state, we conclude that it is a bill which ought not to pass. Not only would the bill entail needless expense, but it would divide the responsibility of the management in a way that could hardly be conducive to successful business administration. The objections to the bill set forth in a communication we printed yesterday seem sound, and we think it will not pass, at least without essential modification.

CITY.

INCOMING FROM DEATH.—A correspondent coming from Olympia sends the following: The U S coast survey sloop City Olympia in charge of R. Munch on her way from Victoria to North bay rescued on Friday evening Jo Budd's inlet an old man who was floating on a piece of his boat, holding on to the bow of his boat but a bottle of whisky at his feet. The boat was half filled with water and only held up by the air in the bottle. The man was found completely exhausted, unable to move and delirious. He was taken on board the steamer and placed near the warm stove and some whisky given to him. He vomited which relieved him so far as to give his name as [illegible] living on Sheldon's prairie near Tenino in Mason county. On his way to Tenino he had stopped at Arcad's and bought a bottle of whisky there. His further history was still that of a desperate character. The whole party took a boat at Warren after breakfast.

Order of Additional Judges Ordered.

This order is issued in accordance with the provisions of the new constitution giving one judge to each 50,000 inhabitants. Superintendent Walker gives the official figures of Cook county a population as 607 868

ASSESSMENT ROLLS.—Mr. Sears, the assessor, and his assistants are busily engaged in making up the three assessment rolls required by law. Preparations at Salem

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

SALEM, Sept 22—In relation to the arrangements on foot in this city under the joint management of the legislative committee and the citizens of Salem for the proper reception of President Hayes and party the details are yet incomplete The committee, together with the designated state officials, will board the special train for Roseburg on its arrival in this city If it meets with the approval of the president and his party efforts will be made to have the train reach salem on its return trip, about 2 P M, as I having carriages at the depot ready to convey to the Chemeketa Hotel, where apartments will be provided for them Dinner being over, a drive will be indulged in around the city, and a public reception be tendered him at the capitol building In the evening having perhaps a couple of hours, the party permitting the party to proceed to Portland on Friday morning. These plans are, of course subject to revision to suit the pleasure and convenience of our guests.

Eugene will Welcome Hayes.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

EUGENE, Sept 22—Our good people do not propose to be outdone by way of offering to the president party their congratulations

At a meeting of citizens held Saturday evening Mr. S. H. Friendly was chosen chairman and it was resolved to invite President Hayes and party to stop over here and take lunch visit the state university and give our people a half hour in which to pay their respects

Rev D Geary, Prof J W Johnson Rev I D Driver and Judge C. W Fitch were appointed a reception committee and Hon J B Underwood and Prof T M Gatch a committee to meet the president at Roseburg in connection with the committees from other places

Other committees were appointed on general arrangements music finance etc. and everything will be done to make it pleasant for the entire party, including the committees from other towns and the legislature that will join the party at Roseburg.

Our people without regard to party affiliations are very anxious that their arrangements may be carried out and telegrams have been sent the president to which an answer is expected.

Some of the Party at Roseburg.

Yesterday four of the presidential party reached Roseburg by stage. The party consists of Miss Rachel Sherman, General A McCook Birchard Hayes and Mrs. Audenried These persons are stopping at the Metropolitan hotel They left Redding on Friday The presidential party, consisting of R. B. Hayes and wife John W. Herron and wife, General W. T. Sherman, Mrs. John C. Mitchell, Dr. D. H. Hunnington and John Jamison left Redding last Saturday and are expected to reach Roseburg on Wednesday

Considerable preparations are being made by the citizens at Roseburg to receive the distinguished guests. A handsome floral arch is now being built over the stage road where it enters the town. Other arrangements are being made

A Pleasant Episode.

Gen. O O Howard and staff yesterday morning accompanied by the 21st infantry band came over from Vancouver to pay their respects to Gen Ramsey and other members of the presidential party. A very pleasant hour was spent in social chat after which Gen. Howard and his officers returned to the fort.

Secretary Ramsey Col and Mrs Bary, and Mr R P. Hayes left for Vancouver yesterday morning, and will be the guests of General O O. Howard until this afternoon They will return here and leave Wednesday morning on the special train for Roseburg to join the president and his party

The Presidential Party at Yreka.

YREKA, Sept. 22.—The presidential party had a reception yesterday afternoon on their arrival from Redding. A procession, with band, escorted the party to town, and it was located each side of Miner street Buildings were decorated with flags and banners. The president and Gen. Sherman were received with address of welcome by Judge Steele. The president thanked the crowd assembled in the street in a few words, being averse to making speeches on Sunday. Gen. Sherman made a little speech.

The party will reach Roseburg on Wednesday evening at dark, and remain till next morning

DESERVED TESTIMONIAL.

Elsewhere appears a correspondence from the members of the Grand Army of the Republic Ancient Order of United Workmen and other civic societies, in which a grand testimonial is tendered Miss Lolla D'Connor, the remarkable child actress and accountant It must be a source of pride to this little lady to feel that her humble efforts on the platform and stage have created such a very favorable impression as to call forth this general testimonial from the citizens of Portland The testimonial so handsomely tendered, has been accepted, and Miss Lolla has designated New Market Theater as the place, next Saturday evening as the time for the entertainment The fact that the ocean will be the opening of the theatrical season at New Market theater, coupled with the assurance of the presence of the presidential party, will no doubt render the affair fashionable and brilliant It is extremely probable that his lordship the earl of Airlie will also grace the occasion with his presence. A most excellent program is in course of preparation. In the course of the evening Miss Lolla will appear in several of her favorite recitations and character sketches. As the beneficiary has always cheerfully volunteered her services on many public occasions the generous minded citizens will doubtless respond, and an overflowing house may be anticipated.

Mr Mitchell discussed at length the financial policy and supported the views of the two great parties [illegible] which he drew a comparison in support of his position and in favor of the republican party which he claimed was the party of honesty and financial success. His closing remarks were short and to the immense delight of the audience

At 11 15 the audience adjourned well pleased with the manner and effect of the speaker

CHURCH REPAIRS

The ladies of the Congregational church of this city are busily engaged this week in refitting and refurnishing their church edifice Having purchased the building which they have occupied for the past two years they have moved and fitted it up in the basement of their new building, and is now known as the ladies parlor room All four hundred below on the first floor have been refitted for the occasion and the audience room is now one of the most elegant and convenient in the city The pulpit platform and all the woodwork has been painted a light oak color and the walls and ceiling tinted a delicate blue The seats have been changed from the old style to the present modern pattern and the entire building has been refurnished throughout with new carpets and furniture which adds much to the comfort and convenience of worshipers The ladies are to be congratulated upon having a church home better prepared to entertain their friends and the utility of the new quarters was fully exemplified a few days since when they so royally entertained their visitors in attendance at the meeting of the Willamette conference of the Congregational churches The ladies of the society certainly deserve great credit for the success attending their efforts in this direction

THE FASCINATING CAPTAIN

Through the holes in my hat as I lay on the sand
I saw the Low as sail sit stunt for the land
The yacht has my name and the captain's my beau
When he said I must marry — to tell it is no
I wouldn't say no because — is true
Every girl I meet wanted him too

Through the holes in my hat as I lay on the sand
I saw my bro — capital step lightly to land
I would mark — believe sleep and see what he'd say
Though I'd watch — eyes peep but never did this way
I would watch very step — my lover so true
Every girl in Atlantic wanted him too

Through the holes in my hat as I lay on the sand
I saw my gay captain take Bella Starbird
And kiss it repeatedly—then glance — to fair
She'd been asleep for an hour — Bella Dare
Yes, that's what she said I'm el — son true—
Every girl in Atlantic wanted him too

I took off my hat as I lay on the sand
And said with a yawn Why when did you land?
The captain came over and knelt by my side
I was fe — ing to wake you — he tenderly cried
And I never I — on I knew him is true —
Every girl in Atlantic wanted him too

Roads between Roseburg and Jacksonville are excellent, and much freighting is being done between these two points

There was more than ordinary activity in business to day A large number of country merchants are in town and their purchases in all departments of the wholesale trade were liberal. Trade among jobbers this month is much heavier than during the corresponding month of last year Collections are slow as farmers have not realized on this year's wheat crop.

The inactivity in the local wheat market continues with no prospects of immediate improvement A few small sales were reported to day at $1 35 per cental but all were minor lots from farmers who required the proceeds for current expenses. Nearly every warehouse is filled with wheat and storage is at a premium. Arrivals from Walla Walla and the valley continue as heavy as for the ten preceding days

The British bark San Luis (from) 891 tons, to arrive to-night, is held at 70 shillings, and will without doubt be readily taken at that figure.

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side under the edge of the ribs increases on pressure sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive sometimes alternative with lax the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility, he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it In fact he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER TO have been extensively deranged

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated Every box has a red WAX seal on the lid, with the impression DR MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C McLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros, of Pittsburgh, Pa, the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation

To all Desirous of Securing the Benefits of Life Insurance

The safe operation with applications for life insurance is not what it will be SAFETY Will the Money Paid out for the Policy be Promptly invested? Are the Affairs of the Company Honestly and Efficiently Administered? When the Policy Becomes a Claim will it be Promptly Paid, and in the absence of a satisfactory answer to the first question should the payment of Claims be delayed

The above questions naturally suggest themselves to the insurer, and the character of the answers determines the course of the person and the selection of the Company

Section 3 of Article XII of the NEW CONSTITUTION of the State of California is as follows

SEC 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee.

7 Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive The Low Rate, Deposit Endowment and Mutual Investment Policies, are peculiar to this Company and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed if equaled by those of any other Company

8 When desired Policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioner of California, on the payment of a moderate fee and a policy holder in the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of California has then the absolute guarantee of the State of California that the money held by this Company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds and mortgages deposited in the State Treasury With December 31st 1879 the Company closed its eleventh year, and in so doing affords the only instance on record in which a life insurance company in the seventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts, not only was this done but in addition thereto a considerable surplus remained

Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as propose effecting insurance upon human life we solicit their patronage, and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us
